Citin Loft has 51 Thai style rooms and suites which are spacious and comfortable. Each room has a balcony where you can read a good book while sipping a cup of tea and enjoying views of the lush greenery and rolling hills of Khao Hin Lek Fai in the distance.

Along busy streets and alleys, explore the shops for bargain buys of clothing, handicrafts and souvenirs or you can enjoy Thai cuisines in restaurants, serving fresh seafood caught daily from Hua Hin Bay or vegetables harvested from nearby farms. Well-themed eateries and cafes abound in Hua Hin town - From Italian pizzas in noisy trattoria to steak houses with country décor; from boisterous merry-making in beer gardens to long afternoon teas of freshly baked pastries and aromatic coffee come served in fine china. Hua Hin is almost quaint but definitely charming. Enjoy a refreshing round of golf at the nearby Royal Hua Hin Golf Course located less than a kilometer from the hotel. Just off the first tee is Hua Hin Railway Station with its beautiful Thai style Royal Waiting Room. Walking tours bring you to the main section of town bounded by Damnoenkasem Road (Hua Hin 61 and 76) and Dechanuchit Road (Hua Hin 57 and 72). Jog along the beach or have a pink-cheeked leisurely stroll amidst lapping waves. To recover, watch the nightfall over dinner at the many seafood restaurants along the beach front.
